

Ancient Egyptian Gods

Use this information to answer the questions on the crossword.

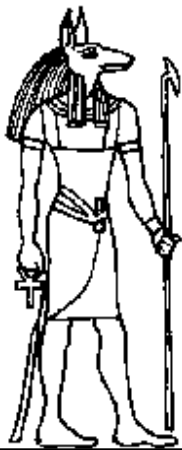

Name: Osiris

Name: Horus

Name: Ra

Name: Anubis

Name: Isis

Name: Hathor

Osiris

A mummified man (wrapped in bandages) wearing a white cone-like headdress with feathers. Osiris was the god of the dead, and ruler of the underworld.

Horus

A man with the head of a hawk, Horus was a god of the sky and is probably most well known as the protector of the ruler of Egypt.

Anubis

A man with a jackal (wild dog) head, Anubis was the God of the dead. Since jackals were often seen in cemeteries, the ancient Egyptians believed that Anubis watched over the dead.

Ra

A man with hawk headdress with a sun disk, Ra was the sun god and was the most important god of the ancient Egyptians.

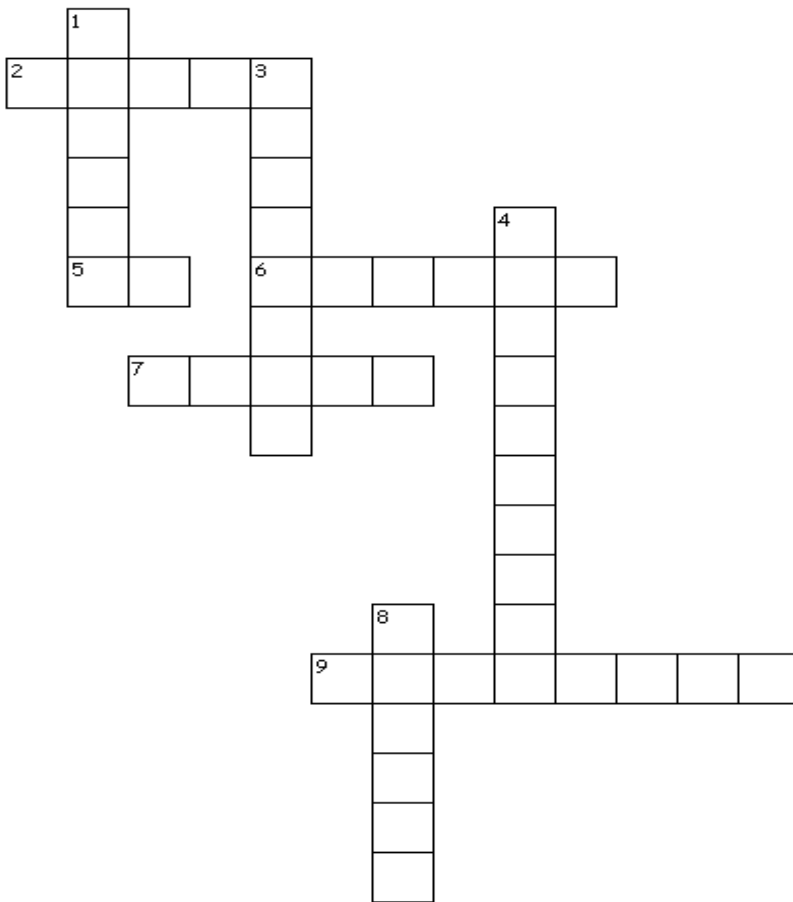

Hathor

A woman with the ears of a cow and a headdress of horns and a sun disk, Hathor was a protective goddess; she was also the Goddess of love and joy.

Isis

A woman with a headdress in the shape of a throne, Isis was the Goddess of Crafts. Isis was a protective Goddess who used powerful magic spells to help people in need.

Ancient Egyptian Gods

Across

- 2. Isis used this to help people in need
- 5. The sun God
- 6. Isis had a headdress in the shape of this
- 7. The God of the sky
- 9. Osiris was wrapped in these

Down

- 1. The Goddess of love and joy
- 3. Jackals were often seen in this place
- 4. Osiris ruled this place
- 8. Animal similar to a wild dog